GREAT OUTLOOK FOR PROPERTY.

Real Estate Prices Are Firm and Demand Is Strong.

ACTIVITY IN THE SUBURBS.

CAUSES AT WORK TO ADVANCE DIFFERENT SECTIONS.

The official opening of the Salt Lake route, the excursion that made up a prominent part of the opening and the excitement attending the excursion overshadowed all other events in the local business world for the past week. Real estate in common with all other branches of business was shoved to one side to make way for the ceremonies attending the opening of the City of the Saints with the City of the Angels.

For this reason the real estate dealers did not make as good a record as was made in the previous week. This was only in outward appearance, however, and the surface there was a large amount of business transacted and dealers report one of the best weeks in many months. A number of large deals were pushed forward and many of them were closed all but filling the papers. The information regarding the activity in the sale of lots is being withheld from the public until after the formal opening of the city, which is expected to be held on the 15th inst. Some of these deals will startle the knoekers when they learn of their magnitude and significance. In the meantime, the city is being firmly moored for all time to come is changing hands. Building projects, too, that would have been looked upon as chimerical a few months ago are now considered well under way.
